NIJ Research on Sexual Assault on Campuses

Campus Sexual Assault (CSA) Study
This study, published in 2007, examined the prevalence, nature, and reporting of sexual assault on campus to inform the development of targeted intervention strategies.

Campus Sexual Assault: How America's Institutions of Higher Education Respond
This study, published in 2002, examined how institutions of higher education responded to sexual assault on campus, including prevention, victim-support services, reporting policies, barriers, facilitators, adjudication procedures, and sanctions.

Evaluation of Grants to Combat Violence Against Women on Campus
This is a 2003 evaluation of grants administered by NIJ’s Violence Against Women Office.

Extent & Nature of the Sexual Victimization of College Women: A National-Level Analysis
Published in 1999, this study updated data on the extent and nature of sexual victimization of college women.

Historically Black College and University Campus Sexual Assault Study
This study, published in 2011, looks at the prevalence of sexual assault on historically Black campuses and examines context, consequences, and reporting; it includes campus police and service-provider perspectives and student attitudes about law enforcement and prevention measures.

Sexual Assault on Campus: What Colleges and Universities Are Doing About It
www.ncjrs.gov/pdffiles1/nij/205521.pdf
This 2005 study — widely disseminated both in print and electronically — summarizes the nature and extent of sexual assault on college campuses, and examines response policies and procedures; reporting options; victim resources; and investigation, adjudication, and sanctions.

Webinar: Sexual Assault on College Campuses
www.innovations.harvard.edu/streams/ksg-sexual_assault_12_11_08.wmv
In this live, online seminar, experts examined the prevalence, nature, and reporting of sexual assault on campus and discussed evidence-based prevention strategies.

Sexual Victimization of College Women
www.ncjrs.gov/pdffiles1/nij/182369.pdf
This report presents results of a 1997 survey of female college students’ experiences of sexual victimization and compared findings with rape estimates taken from a sample of college women who completed a survey based on the National Crime Victimization Survey.

For more on NIJ’s research portfolio on campus sexual victimization, visit:  